School Districts to be Highlighted at October 27th Chamber Breakfast

Sponsored by Investment Advisors International

Have you and your company been wanting to get involved with our local schools? Here's an opportunity to find out just how you can do that and also hear the reality of what the districts are dealing with in their current budgetary constraints. Buena Park is unique in its plethora of school districts serving its citizens. Superintendents from each district will be featured. Coffee and social time begins at the Holiday Inn at 7:00 a.m. and the meeting called to order at 7:30. Meeting scheduled to conclude at 8:30. RSVP as indicated above.

Additional City Council and School District Candidate Forums

Centralia School District will hold a forum for District Trustee candidates on October 6, 2010 from 7: - 9: p.m. at San Marino School, 6215 San Rolando Way.

League of Women Voters will hold a City Council candidate forum on October 4, 2010 from 7: - 9: p.m. at City Council Chambers, 6650 Beach Blvd.

Did you know that the Boys & Girls Club has a vegetable garden? One of the many secrets available at our Boys & Girls Club for kids to learn about eating healthy and getting fit.

Bruce Hird, Chief Professional Officer, gave a brief overview of services and programs offered by the organization to local kids. Every one attending agreed—they offer some pretty awesome programs.

Ribbon Cutting at Granny's Flowers Serves Dual Purpose

Granny's Flowers moved into its present location at 6993-H Lincoln Avenue (at Knott) a couple of years ago, so when owner Betty Bloom and daughter Julia partnered with J.C. Penney Catalog to have a local catalog shopping and pickup location, a Ribbon Cutting ceremony was held to celebrate!

For flowers or JCPenney catalog info, call 714 761-3742.

Photos by Loreen Chamber Board members and guests along with JC Penney's Roy Hubner joined Julia & Betty and Board Chair Sylvia Woodside prior to presentations made by Ryan Holmes, Congressman Ed Royce's Office and Samuel Han of Supervisor Shawn Nelson's Office.

Buena Park Library District Thanks Sponsors

Library Director Patti Hanley thanks summer reading program sponsors including Chamber members Krikorian Theatres, In-N-Out Burger, Salts Family, Yamaha Music, Knott's Berry Farm and Renaker-Klockgether Mortuary.

In her Director's Message in the recent issue of the Library Newsletter, Patti also thanks her staff and says that she feels so lucky to have well trained employees who are dedicated to providing the very best customer service possible.

She also reports that the library completed a very successful Summer Reading program with 327 adults, 1606 children and 298 teens participating this year!
